

NEW HAVEN FARM HOME COMMUNITY PARTICIPATION & INCLUSION POLICY STATEMENT

New Haven Farm Home recognises the rights of all our clients to participate, be included and become an active member in the life of their local community.

We will provide support and learning opportunities to our clients to actively participate in a range of community activities and experiences of their choice, and we will assist each client to develop relevant skills and to become a valued member of their local community.